Please attach your handwritten or typewritten answers to the following questions and return with your completed application.

QUESTION 1 (200 TO 300 WORDS MAXIMUM)

Please answer only ONE of the two questions set out below and note which question you are answering. Please answer this question after you have explored the issue by speaking with a Unifor family member or any other Unifor member you know in your community. You may also use other resources to answer the question, for example, newspaper articles and internet resources, including Unifor's website and the Canadian Labour Congress website.

Unifor believes in "social unionism". Social unionism means that although our union is rooted in the workplace, we understand the importance of participating in and influencing the general direction of society. We therefore strive to not only improve the lives of our members and their families, but also the lives of all Canadians and the communities in which they live. We also strive to build relationships with organizations assisting working people and their communities around the world.

PART 1 A - In what specific way do you think Unifor has had a positive impact on workers & their communities?

OR

PART 1 B - How are unions relevant to you (or not) in your life and in your community? Please provide specific examples.

QUESTION 2 (75-125 WORDS MAXIMUM)

In keeping within the principles of social unionism, Unifor has named each of its scholarships after an individual(s) who were active in promoting social justice.

After reviewing the individual biographies attached, who do you find particularly inspiring and why?

QUESTION 3 (75-125 WORDS MAXIMUM)

How will a career in your chosen field of study enable you to contribute to society and how will this enhance the lives of others?

QUESTION 4 (75-125 WORDS MAXIMUM)

In what way have you demonstrated a commitment to improving your community, (or other communities), in Canada and/or around the world? Please note - this is IN ADDITION to any hours of community service that may be required, in your provincial or territorial jurisdiction, necessary to graduate high school.
